

Plenty of thrills and chills for Facilities' Halloween

Plenty of candy and Harry Potter references took over Facilities for the Trick or Treat event in October. Planning, Design & Construction won for having the best decorations with a recreation of Hogwartz within Building 1. From left are Chris Greer, Julie Rice, Jenna Morgan, Sara Collins and Vanessa Kleypas.

Mark Aderholdt leers at Bradley Prater. At right, Loren Winn, right, won a trio of black cats when she guessed 157 candy corns were in a jar at Client Relations. The exact number was 159.

WRRD audits more than 107 pounds of trash

Waste Reduction and Recycling Manager Joan Hicken and her team of First Year Experience students sorted more than 107 pounds of Mell Classroom garbage.

The six bags contained 85.4 pounds of nonrecyclable refuse and 22 pounds of recyclable goods, about 21 percent similar to previous years.

Chambers students learn about Facilities opportunities

Corey O'Neal, Lucy Kriel and Loren Winn speak with attendees at the College and Career Fair in Valley, which welcomed more than 200 Chambers County high school students. Facilities workforce development initiatives such as this create awareness and encourage students to explore career opportunities in skilled trades areas.

Veterans pack care packages for overseas soldiers

At top, from left, Jim Fuller, Navy; Kathleen Jones, Navy, and Rico Harvey, Air National Guard, create care packages for soldiers who are overseas. At bottom, Rovel Burney, Navy, looks for items for her care package. Human Resources recently celebrated Veterans Day by giving Facilities veterans boxes and items to create the care packages. Our veterans packed 35 boxes to send.
